CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1898.

SURPRISES AT HAWTHORNE.

High class racing is not to be expected all the time at any course, but yesterday's card at Hawthorne was an unusually "chaffy" one, and to make matters worse the fourth race (1-8 miles, selling) was declared off, because of the withdrawal of David Tenny and Treachery, and no substitute being provided race goers were favored with only five instead of the usual six races. The day was a splendid one overhead, its bright sky and clear air being suggestive of squirrel shooting, to which sport possibly many persons gave the day. At any rate they were somewhere else than at the racetrack, where the attendance was so light as to cause a groan from the twenty bookmakers that cut in for one day.

The first event on the card called for maiden two-year-olds and sixteen faced the starter. Of these Sidtilla was the favorite at 2 to 1 and did nothing. People play these races as they do a roulette wheel, and when the numbers went up backers of "the low side" and "the odd" were rewarded, as whatever bright genius arranged the program a dream book must have helped him out, as he put Hindoo's Dream number one, Teutons, number five; Princess Murphy, number three; while Merops, number four, was reasonably close, while the others finishing one, two, three as named. Hindoo's Dream was never headed and the black boy, Dupee, brought her home pulling up. Princess Murphy was never worse than third, while Teutons had a favorable position throughout. Merops, Calchas and Boardman were next and fairly well up. Our Clara was left standing still at the post.

J. McDonald was "there" again with one of his Timemaker rides in the second race. This time he was on Wilson and although the start was excellent, Mr. Schorr's horse dropped back to last position, which, holding until the far turn, McDonald rode so well from there on that Wilson finished third, very close up and beat Afamada, who, three-eighths from home was ten lengths better than he. Daisy F, when Wilson was trailing, was not much better off and she ran a close second to King Bermuda, who was always near the leader, Marzella. Huffman's filly gave it up an eighth out and here Heigh Ho appeared to have a chance. Hardly was near enough to win throughout and finished with Afamada and Heigh Ho closely behind Wilson. King Bermuda had an easy game of it at the end.

This time the winning numbers 14, 15, and 9 were on "the high side."

It proved to be an off day for Starter Bruen, and in the handicap he let go his trigger to the most miserable start seen in Chicago this year, the favorite, Paul Griggs, being hopelessly left at the post while George Lee was practically left. These horses with Milwaukee were away in the rear at the first half and Plantain was lengths behind the leaders, they running in a close bunch. Buckvidere, Basquil, Found and Mistral II was the order up the backstretch, but Plantain got to second position into the straight and having the inside rail was leading at the last eighth where buckvidere and the others were stopping with the exception of Basquil. The latter came on strongly at the finish and was first home by an open length, from Plantain who beat Mistral II easily. Buckvidere finished fourth and George Lee was close to him. The latter was yet many lengths behind the leaders at the turn for home and ran a remarkable race. Found ran her race, she having been severely treated by the handicapper. Paul Griggs was pulled up seventy-five yards out and Milwaukee was up at the sixteenth post. Paul Griggs looked to be a good thing from his second of Monday, when he carried 122 pounds. Basquil, it is said, was badly interfered with on the upper turn in the last race of Monday when his owners and friends were "down" on him to a man.

The fourth race was a procession, Verify, th favorite, winning all the way, Ostra always second. Facade was third for one-half mile, then gave way to Lord Zeni. All the others were beaten away off after a quarter had been covered.

Her Favor, Nannie Davis and Official comprised the first division leaving the post, but as at the half mile ground Graziella made her play she and Her Favor raced away from Nannie Davis three lengths into the straight, Official a close fourth, the others already out of it. Her Favor gained two lengths in the next sixteenth, but at the betting ring Graziella came alongside and an instant later bumped Her Favor, who stopped to nothing, while the other went on. It was a great finish of three and none could pick the winner. Graziella was placed first, Nannie Davis second, Official third. Her Favor, pulled up, was fourth. Prestar showed speed the first three-eighths.

"Johnny" McHale bet on Basquil at 30 to 1, saying "my horse can beat Buckvidere." "Virginia" Carroll was severely punished for his "kidding," as when a man bet $10 on Basquil at 30 he posted 40, got another $10 and going to 50 was again winged. When McHale bet him $10 at 30 to 1 Carroll said "Thank you," and McHale reciprocated the politeness when he got the ticket cashed.

J. T. Williams, one of the old guard of southern turfmen, a man who owned the great gelding Checkmate and the crack colts Joe Cotton and Bob Miles and who has at times filled the position of starter, is in town. He said: "I have only youngsters nowadays. My business here is to sell some whisky, and I thought I would like to look the boys over."

W. M. Wallace said of Jimmy Michael, the great bicyclist, who for some mornings past has been exercising his (Wallace's) horses: "He has a good seat and can ride at 98 pounds. He is anxious to ride, and one of these days when I have an easy horse to ride and the field is small I am going to put him up."

The bad start in the handicap cannot be excused because of the bad actions of the horses at the post. The starter must have patience.

Coley Ullman beat Hindoo's Dream and on Basquil is credited with the winning of the snug sum of $2,800.

There were twenty-two scratches out of seventy-four entries in five races.

There was some floating gossip concerning the running of Buckvidere.

The track was heavy, but fairly dry.

INGLESIDE STAKES.

The Pacific Coast Jockey Club advertises twenty-six stake races in this issue of DAILY RACING FORM, of which eight are to close October 22, eleven November 26 and seven, the latter all for 2-year-olds of 1899, January 7. These stakes are of the aggregate guaranteed value of $36,850. When it is recalled that the California Jockey Club has already announced twenty-six stakes of the guaranteed value of $45,450, it will easily be seen that rich picking await horse-owners on the golden shores of the Pacific.

The eight stakes to close October 22 are those that will be run off at Ingleside prior to January 1. They start off with the University Stakes, a mile dash for 3-year-olds, which will be decided on Ingleside's opening day, November 14, and close with the Christmas Handicap, two miles, for 3-year-olds and upward, in which, on Christmas Day, the stayers will take a shy at Judge Denny's famous two mile record. The liberal conditions of these valuable winter stakes are commended to the attentive consideration of turfmen who expect to campaign next winter in the land of fruit, flowers and sunshine. Entry blanks can be obtained at the office of DAILY RACING FORM.

Time, 12¹/₂, 24¹/₂, 37, 50, 1:17, 1:24.

Winner—Ch. c. by Tyrant—Stella.

Start good. Won driving. Julius Caesar was lucky and good. This victory will probably shelve him for the remainder of the season. Brass was shut off on the turn. Otherwise he would have won. Fairy Dale was badly bumped in the stretch by the winner. She ran well and is fresh and good. Emma Nora closed strong. Siffleur was probably the best, but got a poor ride. He closed a big gap from a bad beginning and wants at least a mile course and a fast track. Stain has outworked the others, but ran green and may pay to watch.

Overweights—To and Fro, 1 pound.

Julius Caesar, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Brass, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Fairy Dale, show, 8 to 5.

Time, 13, 24¹/₂, 36¹/₂, 49¹/₂, 1:15¹/₂, 1:28¹/₂.

Winner—Br. g. by Uncas—Meadowvale.

Start dragging. Won easily. Autumn, lucky and perfectly handled, was easily the best and outclassed his field at the distance. MacLeod of Dare swerved in the stretch and was badly interfered with by King Barleycorn. He finished strong and is a coming crack and a stayer. Acushla got a flying start but ran an astonishingly good race and hung on gamely at the end. La Penitente, off flying, was short. She is a rare stayer and a game one. Only lack of condition beat her at the end for the place. King Barleycorn is a non-stayer, and appears to be good only in mud or on the grass. He swerved all over the track in the last quarter, and showed the white feather. Tendresse was a good horse but was overweighted, among such good class ones. Dr. Parker is a sprinter and best in mud. Scannell ran badly.

Overweights—Tendresse, 5 pounds; Scannell, 1; Domineer, 1; Exception, 4.

Autumn, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. MacLeod of Dare, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Acushla, show, 6 to 5.

Time, 24¹/₂, 48¹/₂, 1:00¹/₂, 1:06¹/₂.

Winner—Ch. f. by Nomad—Sweet.

Start good. Won handily. Briar Sweet outclassed her field. She was not quite at her best today but was lucky and got a strong ride. Bangle, none too well ridden and bumped in the stretch, ran a remarkably high-class race and was easily second best. Handsel was pinned on the rail in a pocket and running strong the last eighth. He shows much improvement unless the race was a bad one, which it may have been, judging from the time standpoint. Swiftmas was saved the first part and still could not beat the others who were forcing the pace. He ran well but dislikes a mile in the best company. Banastar bolted on the turn and lacked speed.

Scratched—Imitation, 105; Cathedral, 100; Belle of Troy, 99.

Tolucia, place, 7 to 10; Satin Slipper, place, 1 to 2. Cormorant, show, 1 to 2.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The best yearling work of the year thus far reported, and one that is not likely to be beaten, was made at the Kentucky Association track Friday of last week. It was made by a bay filly by Wagner—Equal Rights, by Himyar. The filly is the property of Mr. Kinzea Stone, of Georgetown, Ky. The filly, with 112 pounds up, worked three-eighths in 37, the last eighth being the fastest of the three. The fractional time was as follows: 1st, 1-8 in 12 3-5, 2d, 1-8 in 12 1-5, 3d, 1-8 in 12. On the following Sunday the filly was sent a quarter, which she negotiated in 22 1/2, which is wonderful time for the Lexington track. The filly is a beautiful balanced, clean-limbed individual of fine size, and Mr. Stone received many congratulations from turfmen who saw the work.—The Thoroughbred Record.

From remarks dropped by a big stockholder in the Latonia track yesterday, next year's racing at this track will be molded on most liberal lines, and a bid will be made for the west's best horses. It was intimated that no purse of less than $400 would be given and that the added money in all the stakes would be increased very materially. It is also proposed to increase the admission to $1 and do away with all free badges. Another step will be taken to limit the racing, and twenty days will comprise the length of the spring and fall meetings. As yet all plans are in the embryo, but it is almost a certainty that Latonia will take a determined step to restore racing in these parts to its former high standing.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Describing Saturday's Latonia racing, the Commercial-Tribune says: "Han d'Or, the winner of the Latonia Derby, in which he took the measure of Plaudit, made his first appearance on local tracks since his sojourn in Montana. The colt did not look like his former self, his ribs showing and that solid appearance being entirely missing. He does not carry near so much flesh as he did when he was the first three-year-old to demonstrate that Plaudit could be beaten. The gallant son of Hanover, however, will undoubtedly improve at Latonia, and he will be a hard colt to beat from now on."

*Coupled in betting. Time, 26 1/2, 50 1/2, 1:03 1/2, 1:16 1/2, 1:42, 1:55 1/2.
Winner—B. h. by Midlothian—La Scala.
Start straggling. Won driving. Sir Walter was lucky at the start and finely ridden. Warrenton was easily the best horse. He lay out of it too far and Spencer was unable to keep him straight in the stretch where he was running over his horses. Peep o'Day beat the gate and ran fully up to form under a good ride. White Frost ran badly today. The weight was too much for her. She got away poorly and the half hour delay at the post hurt her. Candelaria closed strong at the end but was outclassed. Charina ran well for her. Candeblick was used up making the pace after getting away badly.
Scratched—Twinkler, 102; Central Trust, 102; Blueaway, 97; Bangle, 118; Mazarin, 100.
Overweights—Sir Walter, 2 pounds.
Sir Walter, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Warrenton, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Peep o'Day, show, even.

Winner—B. g. by Midlothian—Mottle.
Start good. Won driving. Scotch Plaid beat the gate and was skilfully handled. Blueaway was probably best and suffered through a weak finish. Estaca was an easy third and is improving. Mazarin looked promising in the stretch, but quit, and is not at his best. Banquo II. closed a big gap after much bad luck and finished very strong. Glonoine ran improvingly. Uncle Louis' forward running was a surprise. He hung on at the end and may become a useful plater. Oxnard was poorly ridden. Double Quick is coming on and showed considerable speed today.
Scratched—Headlight, 110; Gala Day, 105; Rinaldo II, 103; Long Acre, 98; Lady Disdain, 97.
Overweights—Uncle Louis, 1 pound; Oxnard, 2; Hanlon, 3.

Winner—B. f. by Hindoo—Dreamland.
Post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second and third were driving. Hindoo's Dream unextended all the way. She was fortunate in getting away, but judging from the way she could have won with almost any kind of break. This filly, it is reported, has been working lives in better than 49. Teutons ran right to the mark. He is a consistent colt that seems to be a route. Princess Murphy was lucky to be third. With the same kind of break as she got drops would surely have gotten that position. Sidtilla had no chance whatever from where she got off. Our Clara ran well. Etta P went all to pieces when the pinch came.

Scratched—Celeste d'Or, 103; Bolerie, 103; Ramlet, 103; Nilmah, 106.

Overweights—Judge Wofford, 2 pounds; Boardman, 4.
Hindo's Dream, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Teutons, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Princess Murphy, show, 24 to 1.

971 SECOND RACE—7-8 Mile. 3-year-olds, Selling.

Winner—B. g. by Bermuda—Queen Isabella.
Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won whipped out; second, third and fourth driving hard. This was a peculiarly run race and the chances are Daisy F. was the best. She and Wilson both had rough journeys. King Bermuda got away nicely and was cleverly placed. Beauchamp dropped in behind Marzella and Afamada on the back stretch and saved the gelding nicely. He always had a clear path and made a wide stretch turn, thereby getting in the best going. Daisy F. was in and out and all over the track. It was not the fault of the boy, however; the filly simply had bad racing luck. Wilson was slow to get on his stride. He bumped and interfered with everything near him at the head of the stretch. Afamada showed a lot of speed and seemed to be the going, but could not last the route. Heigh Ho ran a very bad race. This filly seems to be an in and out. Hardly looked dangerous on the far turn, but, like Marzella, could not stand the pressure on the end.

Scratched—Julia Hazel, 104; Branch, 104; Inuendo, 107; High Jinks, 107; Good Friend, 113; Inar del Rio, 104; Barataria, 104.

Overweights—Locust Blossom, 5 pounds; Afamada, 2.

972 THIRD RACE—1 1-16 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Winner—B. c. by Wood Moss—Lady Kelly.
Post 8 minutes. Start bad. Won cleverly at the end; second and third were driving. Basquil's win was a scratch. He, Mistral II. and Buckvidere were practically the only horses that got away well. Apparently jockeys on the other horses were caught napping. At any rate they were all pulling up at flag fall. This is a race that it will be hard to extract reliable form from. Mistral II. was away good enough to win, but suffered from a bad ride. It did not look at any part of the road as though McDonald realized he was in a race. Plantain, after much interference and under a poor ride, ran a clever race. Found was exhausted in making up lost ground the first half. The only excuse Buckvidere had was the track conditions.

Scratched—Azucena, 100; Cherry Leaf, 112.

Basquil, place, 10 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Plantain, place, 6 to 1; show, 24 to 1. Mistral II., show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. g. by Victory—Bonnie Lizzie.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won eased up; second well in hand; third eased at the end after early punishment. There was nothing to the race. Verify cantered all the way. Ostra ran an even race. She is a nice little filly. Lord Zeni's performance was disgraceful. He ran about a half mile and then wanted to lie down. He first darted to the outside in the stretch and then to the rail and appeared to be extremely dizzy. Outside of the first three there never was any contention. Fascade looked high in flesh and may have been short. Doremus looked good, but that was all. Do not count this race for him.

Scratched—Approval, 94; Nicholas, 114; Friskal, 114.

Verify, place, 2 to 5. Ostra, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Lord Zeni, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. f. by Aintree—Quick.
Post 2 minutes. Start good for all but Moch. Won in a terrific drive. Graziella had to be much the best to win. Hothersall rode her like a shoemaker. At the sixteenth post the filly had the race already won. The boy, either through incompetency or over anxiety, came near throwing it away. It was unnecessary for him to go to the whip. When he did he lost control of Graziella's head, and she won through sheer gameness. Beauchamp got Nannie Davis off well and she ran a good race. Official was coming strong at the end. He is a hard luck colt. On the other hand, Her Favor is a rank coward. Prestar was short on speed.

Scratched—Tom Toher, 104; Crowley, 104; Chauncey Fisher, 104; Cyril, 104; Teulada, 104; Livadia, 104; Star and Crescent, 104.
